

Youth basketball league starts play Sunday at YHS

The Yosemite youth basketball league begins play on Sunday [December 9] at the Yosemite High School gyms.

Sign-ups are being taken with the registration fee $40.

The schedule has the kindergarten-first grade division in the Big Gym on the lowered baskets at 1 p.m., while the third and fourth grade girls are in the New Gym.

At 2, the second-graders play on the low baskets in the Big Gym with the third and fourth grade boys battle in the New Gym.

At 3, the fifth and sixth grade boys invade both gyms along with the challenger division consisting of the special education students who are competing under the leadership of a Yosemite High School student senior project.

At 4 p.m., the seventh grade division is in the New Gym with the fifth and sixth grade girls in the New Gym.

At 5, the eighth graders play main court in both gyms.

New players interested in signing up for basketball should come before these game times to receive uniforms.
